

Books

Appropriate learning materials to the level, length and type of courses offered

- The academic team will review the books to be used for each term. The choice of books is based on several factors: feedback from teachers and student exit questionnaire, the length of the term, the supplementary material available to the teacher, as well as opportunities for students to use the book for self-study.

Currently, the course books are as follows:

Level	Course book	CEFR Level
Novice	Empower/English File	A0
Seeker A	Empower/English File	A1
Seeker B	Empower/English File	A2
Skilled	Empower/English File	B1
Skilled+	English File	B1+
Scholar A	Empower/English File	B2
Scholar B	Empower/English File	C1
IELTS	IELTS Advantage Writing Skills/ The Complete Guide to IELTS/ Mindset 3	B2+
OET	Official guide to OET, OET: Medicine (also Nursing and Pharmacy)	B2+

There are other coursebooks available to the teachers as a supplementary resource, and the relevant sections for a given piece of material (such as a grammar point, a theme, or a function) are referenced in the General English syllabuses. Books of activities (such as Listening Extra, Reading Extra, Writing Extra, and English Grammar in Use etc.) are referenced in a similar way. These are all available to the teachers from the staff room.

For the purposes of teacher development, there are also a number of reference books for methodology and usage.

- Regular meetings occur between a member of the Academic Team and representatives from ELT publishers. The Head of Academic Delivery will react to recommendations by the publisher and disseminate any samples and materials to the teachers during weekly meetings for their perusal and feedback.

3. For most courses students are expected to work from a coursebook rather than photocopies in order to respect copyright law. The student's first coursebook is included in their enrolment fee but if they move to another level or a different course then they have to buy the related coursebook for that level. On the first day of enrolment, they are provided with a loan book, which is available in the teachers' room and needs to be given back to the teacher at the end of the lesson. Coursebooks are available from Reception.
4. The Head of Academic Delivery informs teachers about book changes, and students are asked to obtain their new book from reception.
5. There is a selection of books, including graded readers and workbooks, available from the teachers' room / office for self-study, and this section is regularly reviewed and updated by the Head of Academic Delivery and Academic Team. During the first day induction, the facilities and provisions are promoted to the students.

Ensuring sufficient stock

The reception staff monitor the stock of coursebooks available for students to buy. When the supply is low, the Business Development Manager is informed and will place an order with the stockist via email.
