

Location

At the crossroads between the shopping heart of London and the media capital of Europe, UKCE has a location like no other training institution in London.

Soho

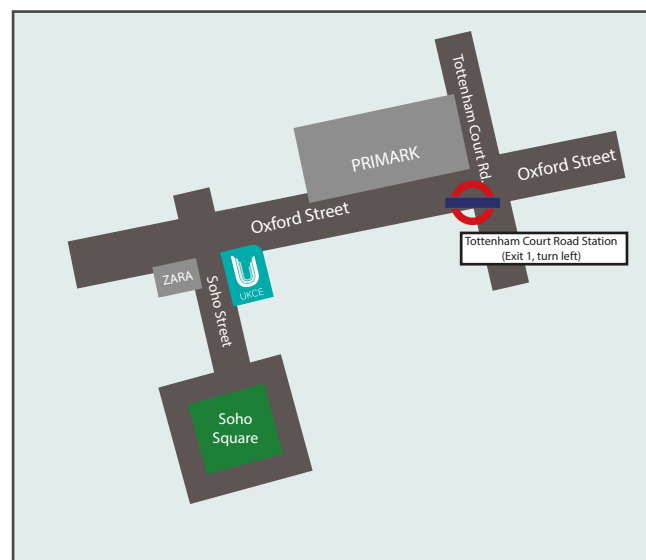

This is the centre of the creative media industry with companies such as 20th Century Fox, Dolby and Technicolor. It is the most vibrant and stimulating area of the capital - by day and by night.

Oxford Street

The most famous shopping street in the world runs right outside the door of UKCE - Primark is less than 100 meters away. From our building you can see Zara, Clarks, Samsung, Gap and so many more.

UKCE

We deliver pure and combined English Language training from our 55 Oxford Street location. Fully refurbished in 2017, with air-conditioning in every room, wi-fi throughout and less than 2 minutes' walk from Tottenham Court Road tube station – there couldn't be a better place to study in all of London.
