

Part-time Programmes

Here are UKCE we have recognised that students have incredibly busy lives that simply don't allow them the time to enrol on full-time programmes of study. Many of our students at the college are working full time, or are carers or are undertaking other programmes of study.

We have made every effort to provide a time table that will allow people to study when they can and not when we want them to. The General English programmes below reflect our concern that every learner, no matter what their situation, should have the opportunity to study.

Take a look at our wide range of programmes and see if one of these suits your needs.
